Vishal is a dedicated student who works hard to develop. He can perform a lot better if he practices writing every day and revises his courses on a regular basis. He understands the principles taught in math. Despite the fact that his concepts are obvious, his grades are lacking owing to a lack of practice. He will improve in Math if he focuses more on methodical practice sessions. Vishal shows an average knowledge of the desired learning throughout Science sessions. During classes, he needs to be more focused. To boost his conceptual learning, he is encouraged to study at home on a regular basis and take thorough notes. He can keep strong Science grades by studying regularly and systematically.
